On Wednesday, April 30th, the National Fair Housing Alliance (NFHA), Housing Opportunities Made Equal (HOME) of Virginia, and the Toledo Fair Housing Center will hold an online news conference/webinar to announce new evidence and a second federal housing discrimination complaint against Deutsche Bank. This complaint, which will be filed with the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development, is the result of an investigation into how Deutsche Bank is failing to maintain and market foreclosed homes it owns in African-American and Latino neighborhoods in Hampton Roads, Va., Baltimore, Md., and Toledo, Ohio.

NFHA filed a similar complaint in February and continues to find new evidence in additional cities that demonstrates how Deutsche Bank continues its detrimental and discriminatory practices in communities of color around the country.

NFHA's investigation of bank-owned homes in major U.S. cities nationwide alleges a striking pattern of discrimination in the treatment of REO properties, where banks maintain and market foreclosed properties in white communities in a far superior manner to foreclosed properties in communities of color.
