MEDIA ADVISORY
CIVIL RIGHTS PHOTO EXHIBIT TO VISIT
RICHMOND

For your Community Calendar and Cultural Events News Coverage

Who: Housing Opportunities Made Equal of Virginia, Inc. and Wachovia have partnered to bring seminal images of those critical days of the Chicago Freedom Movement to Richmond by Chicago-Based Civil Rights Activist, Former Priest, and Photographer Bernard J. Kleina.

What: Visions of a Dream: The Chicago Freedom Movement is a photo exhibit that depicts the civil rights struggle in the sixties as it focused on the critical issue of housing in one of the country's greatest cities.

Where: James Center Atrium, 1051 E. Cary St., Richmond, VA

When: The exhibit will be on display April 16-28.

(*Please note: Media will have an opportunity to interview Bernie Kleina, as well as members from HOME and Wachovia at a private reception on April 17, 2007 from 6-8pm with the program beginning at 7pm. If you would like an one-on-one interview time with Mr. Kleina during the day of April 17th, please let us know so we can arrange a time.)
